The payment of the restitution shall begin while the defendant is in custody. Upon release, any unpaid balance shall be paid at a rate of no less than $100 per month, beginning 30 days after the defendant's release from custody. In ordering this nominal monthly payment, the Court recognizes the full amount will likely not be paid full prior to the termination of supervised release, and in that event, the defendant is ordered to enter into a written agreement with the Financial Litigation Unit of the U.S. Attorney's Office for payment of the remaining balance. Additionally, the value of any future assets may be applied to offset the balance of criminal monetary penalties. The penalties may be included in the Treasury Offset Program allowing qualified federal benefits to be applied to offset the balance of criminal monetary penalties.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise, if this judgment imposes imprisonment, payment of criminal monetary penalties is due during imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, are made to the U.S. District Clerk of Court, 501 E. Court St., Ste. 2.500, Jackson, MS 39201
